Mediator Song

Melodi: Auld Lang Syne

If any problem bothers you and life is much too hot Dialog could be the clue to avoid the "no" and "not".

If legal practise press you down
ADR could cheer you up
skip tendency to eyebrow-frown
join the mediator-club.

To deal with conflict management you will have to use techniques.
To do the reframe properly then we live with less critique.

If legal practise press you down
ADR could cheer you up
skip tendency to eyebrow-frown
join the mediator-club.

The conflict-ladder is a tool when you want to analyse.
Get down the "stairs" - it's such good rule we don't have to say this twice.

If legal practise press you down
ADR could cheer you up
skip tendency to eyebrow-frown
join the mediator-club.

When war's the metaphor you use
And fighting is the frame Then put yourself in others' shoes
And play a different game.

If legal practise press you down
ADR could cheer you up
skip tendency to eyebrow-frown
join the mediator-club.

A song by Pia Deleuran and Bente Holm Nielsen, DK – used 1. time in a presentation in University of Hawai'i about mediator education, October 2006.
